The Final Episode of the 180 Podcast

In the fourth and final episode of the 180 Podcast, meet Eirene Wee. Eirene's story is very different from our previous episodes. She and her husband were living and working in the fast lane, until they felt called to slow down and switch careers. Eirene soon learned leaving behind her successful career and answering God's call didn't lead to an easier life – she lost her hard-earned status and money. Does she have any regrets?

Listen online at stpaulsbloor.org/180podcast or visit our YouTube and Facebook page to hear how climbing the corporate ladder may actually mean we're missing out on the best, thriving, maximum life God has in store for each of us.

Why is Paul Such a Big Deal?

Come join us at 'Reading the Bible: Why is Paul Such a Big Deal?' today at 10:45 a.m. or 12:30 p.m. in Cody Hall. Everyone is welcome and no Bible knowledge is necessary.

Your Family is Invited to a Pancake Supper

Once a year, we gather as a church and eat breakfast for dinner. On Tuesday, March 5, between 6 p.m. and 7:30 p.m., you're invited to a delicious meal of eggs, bacon, pancakes, syrup and fruit. It is an evening to invite family, friends and neighbours to share a meal (which you don't have to cook) and speak of God's abundant grace. The cost is $10 for adults and $5 for children.

Join Us for an Ash Wednesday Service

This Wednesday, March 6 join us at 8 a.m., 12:10 p.m. or 7 p.m. for Ash Wednesday which heralds the 40 day season of Lent. This is a time for personal examination and repentance as we prepare to observe the death and celebrate the resurrection of Jesus at Easter. Ashes are an ancient biblical sign of repentance and will be put on people's foreheads at these services. 3

New Sermon Series Begins Next Sunday

If you had a last chance to be with the people you care most about, what would you say? If you had one last prayer, what would it be?

One night, many years ago, Jesus Christ prepared his twelve disciples for his sacrificial death and looked deep into the future. He saw a dynamic worldwide movement in his name empowered by the Holy Spirit. It was filled with millions of people from every corner of the globe; an incredible array of ethnicities, cultures, languages, and perspectives. And on that night, what would he pray for? Unity. He prayed the Church would be One Family, unified, just as He and the Father live in perfect unity.

We now live in a time of increasing diversity, change, and at times - division. In a world of polarities the Call to Unity has never been more relevant. Next Sunday, join us for the beginning of this five-week series as we explore and live into what unites us as God's Family and how we can witness to this unity in everyday life.

Young Adults: Come Bowl With Us

Young Adults (age 18-35 years old) are invited out for a fun night of bowling on Thursday, March 14, at 7 p.m. at Danforth Bowl, located at 554 Danforth Ave. Please RSVP by March 7 to Ian Koiter at ikoiter@stpaulsbloor.org.
