Calling all Those Who Walk to St. Paul's!

By Sandra Seaborn, Associate Priest

When St. Paul's was founded 175 years ago, there was little housing in the area. The church was deliberately placed on a commercial, but non-toll road halfway between St. James Cathedral and St. John York Mills. The preacher rode on horseback from York Mills to deliver his sermon. How times have changed as today the church is surrounded by high rise residential buildings.

Living vertically has its advantages. You are often close to where you work and worship. You are surrounded by shops, restaurants, sports, and cultural opportunities. For five years, when I lived in NYC, we had a small one bedroom apartment. Surrounded by other buildings, our windows allowed direct sunlight for one month per year. When our first child was born, I became more attuned to the challenges of small spaces. There was nowhere to go at 4 a.m. that wouldn't disturb either the family or neighbours. Not only that, but our stroller had no designated parking spot. Yet, we stayed – because it was that space or a significantly longer commute. With housing costs in Toronto, this is a dilemma faced by many today.

With the growth of high rise residential buildings, more people are living vertically within walking distance from St. Paul's. With few organized third space activities, we don't know each other. Perhaps you have been living by yourself in a rent-stabilized space for years. Perhaps you choose based on proximity to public transit or educational opportunities. Perhaps you found the place you always dreamed of. We all have our own reasons for choosing where we live.

If you live vertically, in walking distance to the church and would like to get to know a few neighbours or are interested in talking about how St. Paul's can become more engaged in our community, come to our first "Vertical Dwellers Evening".

We are gathering Thursday, September 28 at 6:30 p.m. For more information, or to RSVP, contact Sandra Seaborn, Associate Priest, at sseaborn@stpaulsbloor.org or ext. 226. 3

A Letter from the Carlen Family

Good Morning Friends,

Today Anders is picking up our container, which is now in Gothenburg (on the west coast). This involves a couple of really helpful friends, a sacrificial road trip to Jönköping by our Uncle Janne, a big rental truck, and lots of driving.

Please pray for Ben, Sam, and Hanna. They are getting hurt often these days - nothing life-threatening, but something happens pretty much every day, be it a minor concussion (Ben), a twisted ankle that never quite heals (Sam), or a run-in with a metal gate (Hanna). Please pray for God's protection over them.

Anders has started work already, and is happily busy. Susan has not yet been able to start because there has been a delay for Sam and Hanna in starting school, so she gets to spend extra time with them. Please pray for strength and good rest for Anders and Susan. Pray especially that Susan's bad dreams would stop.

We have two big thank you's as well! Thank God with us that: Ben had had such a good start at the International English School; and that there is a housing solution in the works for us. (This involves two couples who are moving away; the relocation of three people to these two apartments; and us being able to move into what was previously an OM women's team apartment. We will keep you posted...)

We need Jesus so much right now. And we need prayers. Thank you so much for your prayers.

Grace and peace to you.

Anders, Susan, Ben, Sam and Hanna

There's no pressure, no follow-up and no charge; it's just an open, informal, and honest space to explore and discuss life's big questions together.

Registration is not required, just preferred. To register online visit our website at stpaulsbloor.org/alpha. For more information contact Ingrid Suld, Parish Ministry Coordinator, at ext 223 or isuld@stpaulsbloor.org

St. Paul's Anniversary Lager - Next week is your last chance!

At St. Paul's, hospitality has been part of our ministry for 175 years. What better way to open the conversation and introduce a friend to St. Paul's than by sharing an anniversary beer with them?

To commemorate our 175th anniversary a special lager was crafted. Six-packs will be available for purchase once again next Sunday, September 24. Don't miss out - this will be the last day to purchase a pack. Packs are $18 cash or $20 by credit card.

Start the conversation with friends and neighbours by sharing a St. Paul's lager with them.

Prayer List

September 17 - This week we pray for:

People who live in the fear of war and terrorism, place courage and peace in their hearts. Leaders to set aside selfish ambition and seek to govern for the welfare of all people with grace and mercy.

All the poor, hungry, and neglected all over the world, may their cries be a call to action for those who have so much.

All victims of circumstances beyond their control, so that all may live in peace, with respect.

The Global Church:

All of us to be united together in and through the Trinity, as a church, in love.

All leaders of the church to hunger for the truth in study and prayer.

The preaching of God's Word would be biblically centred and Holy Spirit inspired.

Everyone gather today to worship in the Anglican Diocese of Qu'Appelle in southern Saskatchewan.

In Our Own Church:

We pray for the following members of our community: Andrea, Michael, Ipsita, Mehuli, Muriel, Lynne, Raffi, Rick and Janet.

Prayer for Open Streets TO:

Lord, help us to welcome every guest at Open Streets as if we were welcoming you. May we delight in their presence and be ready to share the message of your love, mercy and saving grace. Amen.

The Flowers Today

The flowers in the Chapels are given to the Glory of God and in loving memory of:

At the High Table: Nicole Longe given by Anita and Belinda Longe & family.
