An update from Barry Parker

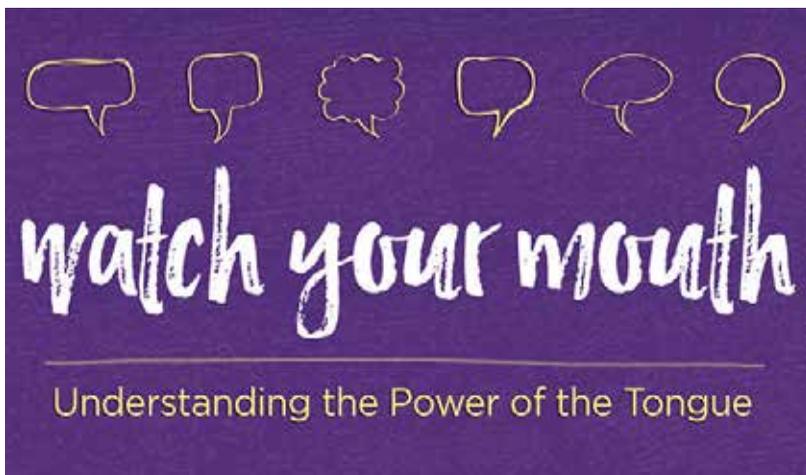

Dear Friends,

As you know I have been visibly struggling with mobility issues. I am appreciative of your support and prayers as I have worked through this back issue using non-invasive therapies. The problem lies in my lower back and it has continued to worsen. Hence, surgery is the next course of treatment. As of August 20, I will be out of the parish on a few days of vacation which will be followed by surgery. I will be away from St. Paul's for some time until I am medically cleared to return.

In the meantime, we are blessed to have an incredible community of clergy, staff, trustees and volunteers who will continue the growing ministry of St. Paul's. Bishop Kevin has appointed Mark Regis as Priest-in-Charge as required by church rules but as Christians, everyone at St. Paul's is called to serve. I have no doubt this wonderful community will continue to thrive in my absence.

Blessings to you all as a new Fall season of ministry begins. Again, I appreciate your prayers and support and look forward to returning to active ministry.

Barry Parker
Rector

August 19 - This week we pray for:

- God's church to persevere in resisting evil whenever it falls into sin, repent and return to Him – especially remembering today those in The Anglican Church of Melanesia and The Archbishop of Canterbury, Justin Welby.
- Strengthen leaders that they may serve in truth, love and humility.
- By the power of Holy Spirit, strengthen Toronto City Mission as it brings hope to children and families impacted by poverty.
- Thank you God for those who serve behind the scenes preparing and who are present on Sunday mornings, such as the Chancel Guild and offering counters – we pray in gratitude for their quiet faithfulness and ask they know the goodness of Your love and see how their efforts strengthen Your Kingdom here on earth.
- We pray for the following members of our community: Daniel, Jim, Karen, Kristie, David, Mary, Susan, Alexandra, Henry and Catherine; asking You to help them, and us, bear faithful witness to the resurrection of Jesus.

The Flowers Today

The flowers at the Font are given to the Glory of God and in remembrance of:

Tommy Taylor and those who served at Diepp, given by Harry Liu.
