Join Us Next Week for Week 2 of Our Series

Even though Jesus commanded his followers not to worry in Matthew 6:25-34, most of us do. We have the realities of Seasonal Affective Disorder, Social Anxiety Disorder, and even the nagging feeling that things aren't what they should be. All produce worry and anxiety. How does our faith inform our insomnia, our worries and anxieties?

Join us next Sunday at 8:15, 9:30 and 11 am as we explore "Money: Will I Have Enough?" You can listen to sermons online, anytime at stpaulsbloor.org/sermons or on Spotify Podcasts, Google Podcasts or Apple Podcasts.

Join Us for Brunch

After each service on Sunday, May 12, you're invited to enjoy a delicious brunch in the Great Hall. This brunch is open to everyone - parents, kids, grandparents, friends and first-time guests. The cost for children and adults is $8. We'll also have a FREE photobooth after each service where you can have your photo taken with family and friends.

Learn How to Navigate Disagreements and Difficulties as Christians

Next Sunday, May 5 at 10:45 am or 12:30 pm, at the Reading the Bible seminar, we'll talk about recent studies on the subject of church unity in Paul's letters in the Bible. Ever since the church started, Christians have faced the challenge of getting along. For Paul, church unity was a huge priority. His letters offer real examples, advice, and principles for how—and why—Christians ought to patiently navigate disagreements and difficulties in their communities. Everyone is welcome and no Bible knowledge is necessary.
