What's the deal with all the curses in the Old Testament? THAT God doesn't seem like the all-loving God described in the New Testament!

How could these endless instructions for sacrifices be relevant for me?

Wait! Is there only one God or are there lots of gods?

What is the point of all these genealogies?

If you're a new Christian encountering the Old Testament for the first time, or you've had difficulty understanding its content or relevance, come to "Reading the Bible: the First 5 Books" at either 10:45 a.m. or 12:30 p.m. in Cody Hall.

We'll be looking at the first part of the Bible ever to be recognized as scripture, its key narratives and themes, and the way the first 5 books of the Bible functioned in the life of Jesus and the early Church.

Better Together

Small Group Social

If you're involved in a Small Group, or are interested in learning about Small Groups, join us next Saturday, November 3 from 4:30 p.m. to 7 p.m. for a celebration of food and community. We will share stories, connect with each other, and learn about the vision of Small Groups at St. Paul's. Kids are welcome - we'll have a movie with snacks in the Library.

RSVP by today. You can do so at stpaulsbloor.org/small-group-social or email hrobertson@stpaulsbloor.org and include any dietary restrictions.

Our New Trustee: Mark Hemingway

As of our Annual General Meeting last Sunday, we have a new trustee at St. Paul's: Mark Hemingway. Mark and his wife Clare joined the St. Paul's community in late 2010 and their daughter Fiona was confirmed at St. Paul's in 2017.

Mark is active in the wider Anglican community, serving as a member of the Governance and Decision-Making Working Group, one of the five Focus Areas under the Strategic Plan of the Diocese.

Mark also serves as a board member for both the Canadian and International Compass Rose Society. Mark has served on the Board of Trustees for the Textile Museum of Canada for 11 years and currently chairs the Finance Committee of the Board. He is a former member of the Executive Committee and Secretary for Legal Leaders for Diversity.
