Toronto City Mission (TCM) Sunshine Day Camp

By Elita Fung, TCM Outreach Worker in St. James Town

On June 12, a group of bright and enthusiastic interns showed up at our Toronto City Mission office, ready to receive training to run our Sunshine Day Camp this summer. After two weeks of training to equip them with resources to plan Bible lessons, lead games, manage behaviour of children, and work as a team, we officially started planning at St. Paul's Bloor Street on June 22.

This year we will be running six weeks of day camp for the community of St. James Town right here in the church. We are grateful to St. Paul's for helping us bring these interns in to help with camp, and for opening up your space so that our kids have a safe place to be this summer! Please pray for our interns as they prepare engaging activities for our campers.

Prayer Walks

Get to know the people and places around St. Paul's by taking a prayer walk. We have six prayer walking tours available at St. Paul's Central, or to download on our website at stpaulsbloor.org/prayer-walks

This series of walks introduces us to our neighbours in prayer; celebrating Toronto's vitality, changing faces, and hope for the future.

Routes include Boor Street, Yorkville, Residential Towers, Rosedale, St. James Town and our Changing Neighbourhood. Each walk takes approximately 30 minutes and can be done anytime.

For more information contact Steve Shaw at ext. 232 or sshaw@stpaulsbloor.org

Summer Booksale

We're collecting used book donations for our summer booksale. If you have books that you no longer need or want, place them in the box in the Atrium.

Prayer List

July 9 - This week we pray for:

All victims of circumstances beyond their control, so that all may live in peace.

Those in leadership, regardless of their position, to be faithful in service and exercise wisdom and justice in their role.

Everyone gathered today to worship in the Anglican Diocese of Keewatin, which includes part of Manitoba and Ontario.

Those serving on our Board of Trustees. The following members of our community: Davin, DeAndrea, Virginia, Ernest, Myrtle, Michael, Hutson, Sheila and Susan.

The Flowers Today

The flowers in the Church are given to the Glory of God and in thanksgiving, given by Courtenay Parris.

Prayer during our sermon series:

Lord, thank you for the beauty of the windows that surround us as we worship you. Thank you for the incredible gifts and talents you gave to those who recreated your word for us in picture form. May we appreciate the talents you have given to others, always recognizing that they come from you and remain yours. Guide us as we examine the stories these windows tell and open our hearts and minds as we study them. In Jesus name we pray, Amen.
