

Alpha FAQs

Why Alpha?

After 2 years of Covid, people are asking the bigger questions in life: Why am I here? Why is all this happening? What is my purpose? What can I do? Join us at Alpha to explore these topics from a Christian perspective. The Alpha course is being run all over the globe, designed for people outside a church setting to come and have a conversation about life and faith. Everyone is welcome! Invite your family and friends to join your group as well.

What happens during the Alpha course?

After some opening remarks there will be a video presentation on a topic about the Christian faith. Individuals are then given an opportunity to discuss informally in breakout groups what they thought about the presentation. Some people ask questions, some don't; the choice is yours. No one will call on you to answer questions, but if you do have questions about the topic, or would like to share differing perspectives, this is the time.

When is the next Alpha?

The Introduction for the next Alpha Course is on Wednesday April 20, starting at 7.00pm. Alpha will run each Wednesday night through June 29.

Where is the Alpha course held?

The next Alpha at St. Paul's Bloor Street will be offered online (Zoom). Just register and we'll send you the meeting information.

What does the Alpha course cost?

The course is free! The only thing it requires is an investment of your time.

Do I have to commit to all 11 weeks?

No! But we do recommend that if you decide to attend Alpha after the first night, you attend at least three weeks to get a taste of the Alpha course. Take a look at these helpful videos to get a better sense of what Alpha is like.
